BORWICK & PRIEST HUTTON GARDENERS' CLUB

TUESDAY 24TH OCTOBER - SUE GILLON & MARGUERITE HUGHES
- PLANTS TO EXTEND THE SEASON

Marguerite has a wealth of experience talking to groups and Sue runs a specialist nursery in West Lancashire. They have paired knowledge and skills into a series of demonstrations using appropriate plant materials grown at Meadow View Plants to support their topic. This presentation will show us how to extend the gardening season into autumn, a feature many of us struggle to achieve. Plants will be on sale at the meeting.

TUESDAY 28TH NOVEMBER- MAURICE STEEL – MADE IN CUMBRIA

Maurice was born and brought up on a dairy farm in Bootle West Cumbria. During this time he had the pleasure of watching the local wildlife and through this he gained a vast knowledge of the area and in particular, the wildflowers which he has photographed throughout his life. Following his marriage he moved to a Forestry Commission farm in Eskdale and remained there until his retirement. The last time Maurice came to the club he gave us a wonderful talk on the wild orchids of Cumbria. This time he will take about all things Cumbrian.

Wine and refreshments will follow the talk. Meetings are held in the Memorial Hall on the 4th Tuesday of the month at 7.30pm. New members are always welcome.

This month our multi-talented Secretary, Pam Beaumont, will demonstrate the art of card making. During the evening members will be able to design and make a card of their own. Pam makes some lovely cards which she has showcased from time to time, so this will be an opportunity for her to show us the skills of her trade.

The AGM will be held at the beginning of the meeting. PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS MEETING WILL COMMENCE AT 7PM. The speaker for the evening will be Andrew Lowe who will take us on a journey of discovery to some well-known (and some not-so-well known) Lakeland villages. Andrew is an excellent speaker so this should be a very interesting talk.

The W. I. is striving to celebrate its 100th anniversary in 2021. The meetings and outings we hold are of a diverse interest and it would be nice to see an increase in membership to help to keep it running. Please feel free to come along to any meeting and give it a try. We are a friendly bunch and at the end of each meeting we always have a cuppa, cake and a good natter. # HISTORY TALK:

A New Edition of a Classic Local Book

More than 300 years ago schoolmaster John Lucas sat down to write

‘A History of Warton Parish’

which then – as now – included the townships of Borwick and Priest Hutton.

Over the next thirty years he wrote about everything from peat-digging and salt-making to the use of gun-powder in farming...not to mention funerals and harvests, fishing and fairies, meteors, schooldays and football.

The last new edition of the book was published in 1931 by local historian John Rawlinson Ford of Yealand and the retired music critic John Fuller-Maitland, who lived at Borwick Hall until his death in 1936.

Now journalist Andy Denwood has re-edited Lucas's work, adding a new introduction and illustrations by local artist Daphne Lester

Andy will give an illustrated talk about the book and its author at

Borwick & Priest Hutton Memorial Hall at 7.30pm on Tuesday October 3rd.

The book will be on sale after the talk, price £15, along with signed, limited edition copies of some of the illustrations used.

More information is available online at andydenwood.com

No charge for entry.

Please just turn up at the Memorial Hall.

Everyone welcome.
